Important Information

The Indiana Criminal Justice Institute will pay the registration fee and two nights lodging only for state, county, or local law enforcement (employees of the federal government or private corporations are not eligible). For lodging to be covered, the eligible attendees must live more than 50 miles from the conference location. Attendees staying more than two nights are responsible for the extra night's expense. Those who register and do not attend will be responsible for the registration fee and/or the lodging expense if not cancelled by the required deadlines. Mileage and per diem will not be covered and are the responsibility of the individual or agency. Some breakout sessions will be restricted to law enforcement only, agency ID may be required.

Lodging will be at the Sheraton Hotel at Keystone at the Crossing in Indianapolis. Participants are responsible for making their own room arrangements. Call the Sheraton North at 888-627-7814 or log on to <http://www.starwoodmeeting.com/Book/LAW07> to reserve your room and advise them you are with the Law Enforcement Conference. The block of rooms will be held until August 24, 2007, after that date the rooms will be released for general sale. Reservations must be made by August 24th for rooms to be covered by ICJI. The hotel will require a credit card number for making reservations. The credit card will not be charged for the room fee if the attendee meets the eligibility requirements, however room service and other incidentals will not be covered by ICJI.

Conference registration cancellations must be made by September 10, 2007, contact Tim Harty, Kelly Banks, or Todd Phelps at (317) 226-6333 or email kelly.banks@usdoj.gov. Lodging cancellations must be made through the Sheraton Hotel at least 24 hours prior to the check in date.

Continuing legal education credit available for police officers and prosecutors!

Featured Speakers & Topics

John Giduck has a Master's Degree in International Affairs, specializing in Russian studies, from the University of Colorado, which included completion of the Russian Culture and Language Program at St. Petersburg State University in Russia. He has traveled extensively throughout Russia and the former Soviet Union, training with Russia's elite Special Forces units for more than 10 years. He is certified through the VITYAZ Special Forces Anti-Terror School to conduct anti-terror training and operations, and is a certified instructor in Russian Special Forces hand-to-hand combat.

He has served as a consultant on various international and terrorism subjects, as well as a defensive tactics and Russian Organized Crime instructor, for numerous federal agencies, and in the FBI National Academy continued training programs. He currently devotes his professional time to the Archangel Group, a non-profit agency providing anti-terrorism consulting and training to U.S. law enforcement, government and military, part of which includes Mr. Giduck serving as a Special Forces hand-to-hand combat and firearms instructor. As well, he holds several black belts, has been inducted into two international martial arts halls of fame, and is a former U.S. national weightlifting champion.

In addition to other published materials and articles on terrorism, Russian organized crime and close quarters tactics, he has recently finished his book, Terror at Beslan: A Russian Tragedy With Lessons for America's Schools. Currently, Mr. Giduck is traveling the United States speaking and training America's law enforcement and military on the Beslan School siege.

Coping Mechanisms for Traumatic Stress

Cherie Castellano, MA, CSW, LPC, AAETS is the Program Director for Cop2 Cop, the first legislated law enforcement crisis hotline in the United States. She is a faculty member of the New Jersey Medical School Department of Psychiatry -UMDNJ where she has honed her clinical skills as an expert in law enforcement psychological services as a member of the American Academy of Experts in Traumatic Stress.

Following September 11, she was assigned to coordinate a critical incident response to over 1,900 first responders in New York and New Jersey. Ms. Castellano led service responses to Urban Search and Rescue Team - NJTF1, Port Authority Police Department, NYPD and the top ten New Jersey Police Departments. Cherie pioneered a "9/11 Rescuer Reentry Program" for the Port Authority Police Department and was given an award for this work by that department.

Post 9/11/01 Ms. Castellano identified first responders as victims and created "Rescuer Victim Programs" in New Jersey, currently receiving over 1 million dollars in funding for 125,000 Police, Fire and EMS personnel.

Her programs and crisis intervention services have been featured in the New York Times as a "model for the nation."
